PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT OF THE CO-LUMBIAN COLLEGE, D. C.

In this School pupils are fitted for admission to the College classes or for other objects.

Mr. JOHN PICKETT, a gentleman who is amply qua-lified, having passed through a collegiate course, and been engaged for several years in the business of instruction, will have charge of the School. His whole time and energies will be devoted to its interests, and it is hoped it will thus be rendered worthy of extensive patronage.

This School will be under the constant superintendence of the Faculty of the College.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

In the Medical Department, the session is of the same length as the Academic session, (nine months,) which enables the students to complete a curriculum of studies as extensive as that of any other Medical Institution in the Union by attending only two lectures a day. They have, moreover, the advantage of daily rigid examinations on the subjects discussed in the daily lectures.

The expenses of the Medical students are the same as those of other students, with the addition of a dissecting fee of $5.

THE LEESBURG ACADEMY

WILL COMMENCE its regular Annual Session on the first Monday in September next, under favorable auspices, and with enlarged capabilities for usefulness.

Boarders will be associated with their Teachers in a private family, where they will enjoy every social and domestic comform regular morning and evening instruction.

The regulations are adapted to young men of high and honorable purposes, who may be presumed to yield a prompt and cheerful compliance with every requisition which their own highest interests may demand. Affectionate advice and admonition, earnest appeals to the moral sense, and to those high motives which should govern the enlightened understanding, will constitute the means on which we chiefly rely for securing diligence in study and propriety in conduct. Habitual instention to study on intentional violations of the rules of the Institution, or the principles of honor or morality, will inevitably dissolve all connexion with the School.

An extensive Philosophical and Chemical Apparatus, of superior quality, will render the regular Lectures particularly valuable to the pupils.
